3.2.5 Social Protection, including Safety Net Programs	0	scope and coverage of the existing social safety net system is too limited and that most interventions are fairly small in scale and designed to be only temporary interventions; one of the main challenges that have yet to be tackled in the context of a national approach to the SSN includes the establishment of solid monitoring and evaluation systems to inform policy decisions. A recent review of SPPIS across African nations, categorized Burkina Faso as having early stage or no plans in place for a national safety net system.	Cherrier et al. (2011) Burkina Faso: Social Safety Nets http://documents.worldbank.org/curated/en/425461468341336068/pdf/889940NWP0P132085256B00PUBLIC001403.pdf Monchuk, Victoria. 2013. Reducing Poverty and Investing in People: The New Role of Safety Nets in Africa. Directions in Development. Washington, DC: World Bank.
3.2.6 Early Childhood Development	1	Burkina Faso has an explicitly stated multisectoral ECD policy since 2007, La Stratégie Nationale de Développement Intégré de la Petite Enfance. Some administrative and survey data are collected on ECD access and outcomes, most as part of the Annual Statistics for Education.
