3. Required Competencies: The Secretary-General is seeking an individual with:

- 3.1 Impeccable personal and professional integrity: embodying UN values and promotes the well-being of all individuals regardless of gender, religion, race, nationality, or age. This will require effective communication with people of different cultures, demonstrating an ability to see issues from different perspectives;

- 3.2 Demonstrated leadership experience: with strategic vision and proven skills in managing complex organisations and relationships between different stakeholders: a capacity to work with diplomacy, assessing political and operational contexts based on a sound understanding of power relations and experience of institutional dynamics, in order to establish strategy, develop tactics, grasp opportunities and to lead teams in pursuing them effectively;

- 3.3 Extensive experience in handling complex multi-stakeholder and multi-sectoral issues: relevant experience in a political environment – handling multiple interlinked issues with a range of constituencies and interested parties, in varied and changing contexts so as to identify, anticipate and avert potential challenges before they start to affect operations;

- 3.4 Building partnerships through trust: an ability to build relationships with key stakeholders in the Movement, upholding the SUN Movement’s core constitution and its principles of engagement, with diplomacy and focus;

- 3.5 Dealing with bilateral and multilateral funding sources: a capacity to deal with both bilateral and multilateral donors – managing the process from fundraising until the finalisation of the grant proposal- and proven experience in the development cooperation or a related area including in an international working environment;

- 3.6 Extensive experience at a senior managerial level: with significant experience in the international environment with a proven record of managing and motivating diverse teams in complex political environments. Field experience in multi-sector rural development or food and nutrition security programmes and policies is an asset; and

- 3.7 The UN Secretary-General and the Executive Committee would especially welcome applications of women candidates;

Further details:

- 3.8 The position is for two years renewable. The Coordinator may be removed by the Secretary-General in accordance with existing procedures, for unsatisfactory performance in discharging his or her responsibilities;

- 3.9 Fluency in oral and written English is required. Knowledge of other UN languages is highly desirable;
